

Law Enforcement Police Exploring

Longmont Police Department Young Adult Program

“Policing in Partnership with the People”

Longmont Police Exploring is...

The role of an explorer is to work side-by-side with Longmont police officers to gain practical experience in policing, interact with positive role models, perform community service, and engage in a multitude of law enforcement activities. The program emphasizes overall improvement of citizenship, a sense of community responsibility, student career advancement, leadership, life skills, and character development.

The program is sponsored by the

Crime Scene Investigation

“My favorite parts of being an Explorer are learning about law enforcement, meeting new people, helping in the community, and riding along with officers.” – Morgan

“What I like the most about being a police explorer is being able to interact with the community as well as gaining knowledge from officers and other members of the police department.” - Gladis

Volunteer Work

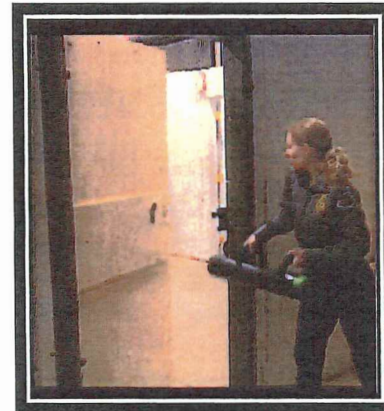

“I enjoy being a part of the explorer program because it helps me become a better leader.” - Nick

Police Exploring Goals:

Provide practical experience in the field of law enforcement.

Demonstrate positive leadership to the Explorers while providing them an opportunity to take on leadership roles of their own.

Provide a chance to learn and grow in a supportive, caring, and fun environment.

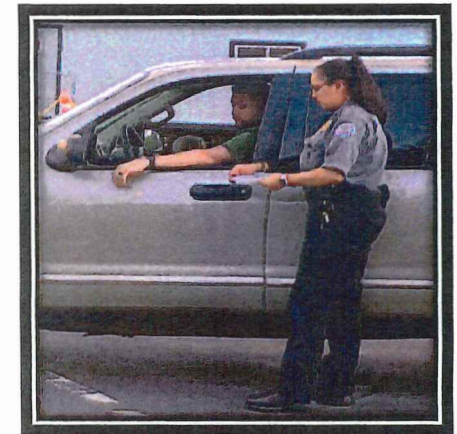

Door Breaching

“What I enjoy the most about being in the Explorer Program is the experience and knowledge that you gain about the field of law enforcement. Even if you decide that law enforcement is not something you want to pursue as a career, you still gain valuable knowledge about teamwork, leadership, and along the way, a great experience in a professional environment.” - Ryan

Physical Fitness

“The Explorer Program to me means coming together as a community. It’s about friendship. It’s about being a team that works together” - Clara

Traffic Stops

“An Explorer is a young adult that is interested and excited to learn more about the life of police officers. We are preparing to be the leaders of our City.” - Jessica
