Internship Title: Video Coordinator

Hours/Schedule: TBD, flexible schedule; hybrid work

Start Date: Early November

End Date: TBD

Internship Overview: As the Video Coordinator Intern for the Longmont Symphony Orchestra (LSO), you will be responsible for filming certain rehearsals, concerts and events as well as editing videos and clips of LSO musicians, patrons and board members. This is an unpaid internship.

What you'll do:

- Assist our current videographer with the filming of LSO rehearsals, concerts and/or events as needed
- Occasionally interview LSO musicians, board members and patrons as directed
- Create engaging, professional videos for the LSO to post on social media
- Occasionally work in the LSO office and have meetings about projects
- Keep up to date with trends and help us create media content that appeals to a wide range of audiences
- Send projects to the LSO's Office Manager (info@longmontsymphony.org) for final approval

Benefits:

- You will have a chance to work behind the scenes with a prominent symphony orchestra in the area
- Working with board members, LSO staff and musicians, many of whom have extensive and impressive professional background and connections including but not limited to: worked in federal government offices, attorneys, former CEOs, business owners and entrepreneurs in Longmont
- Will build up a network of references by working with the LSO Board and staff

To apply:

Interested candidates should scan the QR code to complete the Interest Form. Jamie Carius, the Work-based Learning Coordinator, will then reach out to discuss the next steps. Please be prepared to provide a resume, cover letter, and, if available, a digital or physical portfolio showcasing your work.

A final interview may be scheduled at the Longmont Symphony Orchestra office if there are multiple applicants. The office is located at 515 Kimbark St., Suite 105, Longmont, CO 80501.
