

BE A HUNGER HERO

Connecting Colorado Youth for a Hunger-Free World

csuspur.org/grow-youth-institute

spurcoloradogrow@colostate.edu

The Colorado GROW Youth Institute empowers Colorado high school students to explore food security challenges across the world.

Connect with peers and leaders across the state to explore, research, and propose solutions to solve food insecurity and hunger at home and around the world.

Ready to be a hunger hero?

Register, contact us, or join our mailing list to get involved and learn more!

BENEFITS OF PARTICIPATION

- Be considered for scholarships at the College of Agricultural Sciences at CSU
- Become a Borlaug Scholar
- Qualify for international internships and fellowships
- Be considered to attend the Global Youth Institute
- Develop critical thinking and leadership skills

STEP 1 Identify a Mentor

Teachers, counselors, club leaders, advisors, parents, or other trusted adults make excellent mentors. Contact us if you need help finding a mentor!

STEP 2 Research & Write

Choose a country and a global challenge related to food security to explore.

STEP 3 Propose a Solution

Consider a recommendation that would help address the global food security challenge you have analyzed.

STEP 4 Share with Others

Work with mentors and peers to incorporate feedback.

STEP 5 Attend Colorado GROW Youth Institute

Tuesday,
April 8, 2025 at

Present your global challenge papers and solutions, and learn from peers and experts about food security challenges and solutions around the world.

Registration Deadline
Tuesday,
March 4, 2025

Paper Deadline
Tuesday,
March 18, 2025

